Description:

Experience absolute privacy at this truly unique Up North retreat, offering 2.1 acres and nearly 900 feet of shoreline on Daggett Lake on the Whitefish Chain! Set on its own private peninsula, the property provides breathtaking 360-degree panoramic lake views and plenty of space for entertaining. This custom-built full-log home features three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a custom kitchen, and soaring log-beamed vaulted ceilings. A beautiful, spacious loft overlooks the living room and captures stunning lake views, creating the perfect space for additional sleeping, a home office, or a relaxing sitting area. Two wood-burning fireplaces with beautiful stone accents create the ideal cozy cabin atmosphere, while the full-length covered deck offers an incredible setting for relaxing and entertaining. Outside, enjoy an amazing yard complete with in-ground irrigation, low-voltage accent lighting, a storage shed, and a massive firepit overlooking the lake. The property currently holds a city rental license and adjoins more than six acres of United States-owned land, which connects to approximately 686 acres of Crow Wing County Forest. Enjoy direct water access to Cross Lake and the convenience of being located close to town, shopping, dining, recreation, and all the area's amenities—while still experiencing outstanding privacy and peaceful lakefront living. Located along a dead-end road, this one-of-a-kind property delivers exceptional privacy, unforgettable views, and the true Up North cabin experience!
