Description:

WARNING! Once you see this covered front porch, you may never want to leave! Stretching the entire length of the home, this incredible outdoor living space is the perfect place for morning coffee, rainy afternoons, or simply kicking back and enjoying the privacy of this beautifully landscaped Steamboat Loop setting. Half-log siding adds just the right amount of Northwoods character, while inside, the open-concept living area features vaulted ceilings, three skylights and plenty of natural light. Even better—a brand-new natural gas fireplace with shiplap surround is being installed in August 2026! The kitchen features updated stainless steel appliances and a center island, and the main level offers two bedrooms, including a primary suite with walk-in closet and private 3/4 bath with shower, plus an additional full bath. Downstairs you'll find a large family room, third bedroom, 3/4 bath with shower and plenty of storage space. Outside, the beautifully landscaped yard includes a raised garden area, backyard path/trail, paved driveway and a double detached garage that is heated and insulated with an attached lean-to shed. And here's another reason to love this location—Steamboat Loop has a bike path that connects to the Heartland State Trail, giving you access to miles of hiking, biking and snowmobile adventures. Private, comfortable and loaded with Northwoods charm, this is one you'll want to experience in person!
