Description:

Beautifully updated 5-bedroom, 2-bath home situated on a rare one-acre lot in town in Bemidji's Nymore neighborhood. Designed with both entertaining and larger households in mind, this spacious property offers an inviting open floor plan, a completely remodeled kitchen and updated bathrooms, along with new flooring in these areas. A recently renovated second family room provides an excellent additional living space—perfect for movie nights, a game room, kids' area, or simply room to spread out. Outside, the fully fenced backyard features chain-link fencing for added peace of mind with children and pets. The expansive lot is framed by towering Norway pines and attractive flower beds, creating a private and welcoming setting. Additional highlights include vinyl siding, a newer roof, generous indoor and outdoor living space, and the uncommon opportunity to own approximately one acre while still enjoying the convenience of an in-town location. This Nymore property offers the space, updates, and versatility that are hard to find.
