

MLS 7130852 Residential Income

$334,900

Description:

Flexible and well-maintained Pine River 4-unit property offering exceptional options for owner-occupants, multi-generational living, or full investment use. Set on a spacious in-town lot, this versatile property offers a rare blend of privacy, usable outdoor space, and convenient access to everyday amenities. The layout allows for multiple living strategies, including occupying part of the property while leasing other units, creating space for extended family, or maximizing income potential with all units in service. Recent seller improvements include a new deck, new kitchen flooring, remote-controlled ceiling fans, and more than $15,000 in recent updates, giving the property a move-in ready feel while still leaving room for a new owner to personalize over time. Additional features include a 2-stall garage, storage, and a roof warranty for added peace of mind. Located near Pine River-Backus Schools, downtown shopping and dining, and the Paul Bunyan State Trail, this property combines flexibility, function, and location in one unique package. A standout opportunity for buyers seeking a property that can support a variety of lifestyle and investment goals.
