Waterfront: Mississippi River

Status: Pending

Description:

Discover a truly special Mississippi River retreat offering approximately 320 feet of shoreline and over 7 acres of private, wooded land. Tucked away in a peaceful forest setting with exceptional privacy and no close neighbors, this property offers the kind of quiet waterfront experience that is increasingly hard to find. Enjoy boating and exploring the Mississippi River with water access to Lake Bemidji and Stump Lake, then return home to your own dock and pontoon lift.Wildlife is part of everyday life here, from beavers and waterfowl along the shoreline to native lady slipper orchids that emerge in the woods each year. Whether you're relaxing on the dock, boating, fishing, kayaking, or simply enjoying the sounds of the river and surrounding forest, this property feels like a private Northwoods escape.Built in 2011, the well-maintained 2-bedroom, 1-bath home features an open floor plan, spacious kitchen, maple cabinetry and trim, wood flooring, and generous storage. Outside you'll find a partially fenced yard, newly paved driveway, updated 2-car garage with additional flex/office space, and a newer pole barn offering excellent storage for boats, recreational vehicles, equipment, and outdoor gear.With extensive Mississippi River frontage, direct access to miles of water, tremendous privacy, and more than 7 acres to enjoy, this is much more than a home—it's an opportunity to own a remarkable piece of Northern Minnesota waterfront.
