Description:

Rustic seasonal cabin with panoramic views of STRAWBERRY LAKE! Imagine waking up to the gentle call of loons, grabbing a cup of coffee and walking out to the deck overlooking 468' of pristine shoreline. Tucked away at the end of a winding driveway, this hidden gem of a property sits on over four acres of mature wooded land. Offering a rare combination of total seclusion and lake life that immediately washes away the stress of the workweek. Strawberry Lake is known for it's excellent fishing, making it the perfect place to teach your kids and grandkids how to cast their first line. From pulling in walleye at sunset, campfires roaring under a blanket of stars, or afternoon kayak rides, this property is designed for a slow, meaningful connection. Built in 2003, the 864 square foot cabin perfectly balances a rustic, close-to-nature vibe with modern worry-free essentials- including a brand new well installed spring 2026! (There is also an outdoor shower for you nature enthusiasts) This is a cozy, low maintenance retreat where the focus stays exactly where it should be, on the great outdoors. This is your chance to disconnect from the noise and reconnect with what matters most. This isn't just a seasonal cabin; it's a canvas for your family's future memories! Make an appointment to tour this property and see what nature can do for you.(Cabin interior currently being painted, more photos to come.)
