Description:

Welcome to this beautiful home located on Camp Lincoln Road and surrounded by towering white pines and a peaceful canopy of tall trees. This home is set on 2.71 acres in a peaceful and private setting right across from lake Hubert, with plenty of room to enjoy both inside and out. The home offers five bedrooms, including two on the main level and three downstairs, along with two full bathrooms on the main floor and a $\frac{3}{4}$ bathroom downstairs. The bright and spacious kitchen features a center island, hardwood floors, plenty of natural light, and an informal dining area, making it a comfortable place for everyday meals or gathering with family and friends. Just off the kitchen is a separate formal dining room with doors, offering a great space for entertaining or special occasions. The living room feels open and inviting with its vaulted ceilings, large windows, and stone gas fireplace. The primary bedroom has direct access to the deck includes a amazing private bathroom with a separate shower and tub and his and her closets. Geothermal heating and ICF Foundation throughout the house adds to the comfort and efficiency of the home year-round. Outside, the wraparound deck overlooking the backyard provides plenty of space to relax and enjoy the quiet surroundings, while the covered porch area offers another comfortable spot to unwind. With its spacious layout, beautiful natural light, and private acreage, this home is a wonderful place to settle in and enjoy!
