Description:

Wake up to log walls, vaulted ceilings, and front-row views of Upper South Long Lake. Built in 2016, this two-bedroom, two-bath log home lives bigger than its footprint, with an open kitchen anchored by a granite topped island, in-floor heat for easy winters, and a loft bedroom tucked under the peak. Step outside to a patio built for lake-town evenings — hot tub, built in gas grill, private yard with fire pit and plenty of room to gather. Currently an established short-term rental, it's ready to keep earning or become your full-time up-north address.
