Status: Active

Description:

This cozy home sits on .61 acres and is also surrounded by a park and a natural reserve, yet still in the city limits. The new siding and windows were put in recently as well as the 450 sq' multi level cedar deck. The floor plan is very open and updated plank flooring runs front to back on both levels. There is added storage with a built-in wine/coffee bar in the dining area and built in desk in the living room. And of course we can't forget the new counter tops and Stainless appliances in the freshly painted dual-tone kitchen. The upper level has a bonus room with a large storage closet. The primary bedroom is also up here and has 2 separate closets. The garage and shop were not forgotten during the siding and shingle job as that is nicely done too and the perfect spot to tinker on toys or work on hobbies. Why are you paying for rent when you could own this low maintenance home for about the same cost.
