Description:

Nestled in a highly desirable Baxter neighborhood, this custom built modified two-story walkout sits on a manicured 0.60 acre lot with a private, heavily wooded backyard. Built with exceptional craftsmanship, the home features solid 6 panel maple doors and refined wood detailing throughout. The main level offers a dedicated home office behind French doors. It has a gourmet kitchen and dining area accented by hardwood floors with a marble border. You'll also find a living room featuring soaring vaulted ceilings and a gas fireplace. Step out onto the spacious covered deck off the dining room to take in the views of the private yard and patio. The upper level houses three bedrooms, including a primary suite complete with custom imported tilework. The expansive lower level offers a cozy family room and a massive secondary space with two egress windows, originally designed to be finished into two additional bedrooms. An attached 3 stall garage provides ample space for vehicles and gear. Enjoy the peaceful neighborhood living just one mile from major retailers, with the area's top lakes, golf courses, and dining all within a 15 minute drive. Well-maintained and built with high quality bones, this executive home is ready for your personal touches. Schedule your private showing today!
