Description:

Charming and recently updated, this 2 bedroom, 1 bath home sits on a corner lot in Akeley. Fresh paint, new flooring, and an updated bathroom give the interior a crisp, move in ready feel. The main level includes one bedroom and a 3/4 bath, while the upper level is divided into two flexible spaces—ideal for a second bedroom, office, or hobby area. A full unfinished basement houses the utilities and laundry with plenty of room storage. Outside, the property features steel roof and siding, a well treed yard, a spacious 24x32 pole building, and a single stall garage with steel roof. The backyard borders the Heartland Trail, making morning walks, bike rides, and nature watching part of everyday life. You're also just a short walk from town amenities and the city beach. Centrally located between Walker and Park Rapids, this home offers small town charm with easy access to nearby communities.
