Description:

Escape to the Northwoods! This well-maintained cabin on Big Rice Lake offers a chance to unplug, slow down, and enjoy the outdoors on a beautiful 2,030-acre natural environment lake. Whether you're looking for a hunting camp, fishing getaway, weekend retreat, or a place to explore all four seasons, this property delivers the classic Up North experience. Big Rice Lake is known for excellent fishing, canoeing, kayaking, duck hunting, and abundant wildlife. Spend your days on the water, head into the woods for a hunt, paddle the shoreline, or simply sit back and enjoy the peaceful surroundings. The natural setting creates a true wilderness haven where the sights and sounds of the Northwoods are right outside your door. The cabin is small, comfortable, and well maintained—just enough space to enjoy your time at the lake without the upkeep of a large home. A great base camp for hunting and fishing adventures or a simple place to escape the busy pace of everyday life. Located near Remer, this is your opportunity to own a piece of the Northwoods and experience everything the area has to offer throughout the year—fishing and paddling in the summer, hunting in the fall, snowmobiling and winter recreation when the snow flies, and peaceful spring days surrounded by nature. If you've been looking for a genuine Up North getaway on a large natural environment lake, take a look at 4716 Big Rice Lake Road NE. This is the kind of place where you come to get away, explore, and make memories.
