Description:

Welcome to White Pine Point, a truly rare offering just outside the city limits of Pine River. Set on just under 3 acres with nearly 700 feet of frontage along the Norway River, this property offers direct access to Norway Lake and a level of privacy and space that's increasingly hard to find.The home has been thoughtfully reimagined, featuring a custom kitchen with a large island and a formal dining area positioned to take in the water views. The expansive family room is filled with natural light from surrounding windows and anchored by a cozy fireplace, creating a comfortable space to gather year-round. A convenient half bath completes the main living area.Step outside to a large covered porch overlooking the water, with just a few gradual steps leading down to a sandy shoreline—ideal for swimming, relaxing, or launching out for a day on the lake.In addition to the home, the property offers exceptional storage and workspace. The attached heated garage measures an impressive 38x34, providing ample room for vehicles, boats, and equipment. A separate outbuilding includes a spacious workshop, dedicated office area, and loft space that could be utilized for storage or future living quarters.Adding to its character, the property is also home to what is believed to be the oldest cabin in Pine River, located just steps from the water's edge—offering a unique connection to the area's history.A property of this size, with this amount of water frontage, usable land, and functional space, is rarely available in this location.As the story goes this property also holds the oldest cabin in Pine Rivers history just a few feet from the river's edge.
