Description:

Form meets function in this distinctive 3 bedroom, 4 bathroom Fergus Falls home, where timeless 1930s character blends with everyday livability. A stucco exterior and arched front entry welcome you into a charming foyer highlighted by a classic wood staircase. Inside, enjoy an eat-in kitchen, formal dining room and the rare convenience of a main floor primary suite with private bath and laundry. A double attached garage adds practicality, while the partially finished lower level offers abundant storage and flexible space for future expansion. Ideally located on the north end of Fergus Falls, just a couple blocks from Lake Alice and within easy walking distance of downtown, this home delivers character, convenience and a layout that is difficult to find in a home of this era.
