Description:

An exceptional opportunity to own 54.93 acres of thoughtfully managed hunting land in Otter Tail County! This property is set up for the serious outdoorsman, featuring a comfortable one-bedroom hunting cabin complete with a 3/4 bathroom, functional kitchen, and open-concept living and dining area—perfect for relaxing after a day in the woods.The land offers an outstanding combination of wildlife habitat, food sources, and strategically positioned hunting stands. Approximately 11 acres of corn ground are currently rented to a local farmer, providing agricultural income and an additional food source for wildlife. Established food plots, approximately 15 acres of undisturbed bedding habitat, and a natural drainage/waterway running through the property create an ideal environment for attracting and holding deer.With eight enclosed hunting stands, including two new Amish-built stands, plus numerous additional ladder and other stands, this property is ready for hunting season. A new Day Tripper Conex storage container provides convenient storage for equipment and gear.Whether you're looking for your own private hunting retreat, a recreational getaway, or an investment in quality Minnesota hunting land, this property offers an incredible combination of acreage, improvements, and wildlife habitat!
